petitioner and the fourth and fifth respondents, who are none other than the brothers of the petitioner regarding sharing of her deceased mother's jewels. Hence, the petitioner earlier given a complaint before the third respondent. Since no action has been taken on the same, the petitioner has filed the present petition seeking transfer of the complaint lodged by the petitioner to the file of the second respondent.

3. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the official respondents, on instructions, would submit that based on the complaint given by the petitioner, enquiry has been conducted and since the dispute between the parties is civil in nature and a family dispute, the respondent police has closed the complaint directing the parties to approach the civil Court for appropriate remedy.

4. Considering the fact that the complaint lodged by the petitioner has been enquired into and closed by the respondent police, the prayer as such sought for by the petitioner cannot be granted at this stage. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
