3. The petitioners are based in West Bengal. The defacto complainant is based in Dindigul. The first petitioner married the defacto complainant in the year 2017. Both are dentists by profession. The marital relationship between them appears to have come under strain. The defacto complainant filed M.C.No.44 of 2018, before the Family Court, Dindigul, seeking certain reliefs against the first petitioner. I am of the view that arresting the petitioners is not going to serve any purpose. However, the first petitioner is directed to appear before the Family Court, Dindigul, on 19.09.2019, he shall stay at Dindigul for a period of one week and attempt to resolve the matter through mediation. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners gives an undertaking that the first appear on 19.09.2019 and also stay at Dindigul for period of one week and cooperate for mediation.

4. Recording the undertaking given by the petitioners' counsel, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions. Accordingly, petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Dindigul, and on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation. The petitioners shall comply with the conditions stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C scrupulously.

5. The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed.
