The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, in Crime No.290 of 2019, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Heard both sides.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that even as per the FIR, the petitioner and other accused persons have transported rock illegally. The petitioner is not having any bad antecedent. However, on instruction he further submitted that the petitioner is willing to deposit a sum of Rs.6,000/-(Rupees six Thousand Only) without prejudice to his contention. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent has submitted that the petitioner and other accused persons have transported rock by using vehicle without any valid permission. He further submitted that since the petitioner himself has come forward to pay Rs.6,000/-. However, he fairly conceded that no similar type of case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration of the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Eraniel, Kanyakumari District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(vii) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
