2. According to the petitioner, some criminal cases have been foisted against the petitioner's husband and now, under the guise of conducting enquiry, the respondents police are harassing him and also his family members. Hence, the present Writ Petition has been filed.

3. Today, when the Writ Petition was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents 1 to 5, on instructions, submitted that already, eight criminal cases are pending against the petitioner's husband and all are relating to robbery and theft. The respondents police are only conducting the investigation and they are not harassing the petitioner's husband, as alleged by the petitioner.

4. Considering the fact that already, eight criminal cases of serious offence are pending against the petitioner's husband, the prayer sought for by the petitioner cannot be granted. Hence, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
