O R D E R

The petitioners are shown as respondents in M.C.No.90 of 2015, on the file of the learned Additional Mahila Court, Tiruchirappalli . The same was filed by the respondent under the provision of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence, 2005. To quash the same, this criminal original petition has been filed.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners reiterated all the contentions set out in the memorandum of grounds, but they are factual in nature. On those grounds, it is not possible to invoke the inherent powers of this Court to quash the impugned proceedings. Leaving open all the contentions and defences of the petitioners, this criminal original petition stands dismissed.

3.The personal appearance of the petitioners are dispensed with before the Court below. However, the Court below will insist on the personal appearance of the petitioners only on three occasions namely, to answer the charge, to examination under Section 313 of Cr.P.C., and at the time of pronouncing Judgment. On all other occasions, the petitioners need not appear before the Court below. However, on those occasions, the petitioners will have to be represented by their counsel. If the petitioners' counsel is also absent, the benefit of dispensing the personal appearance of the petitioners will stand automatically vacated. It is made clear that this Court has not pronounced anything on the merits of the matter. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
