The relief sought for in the present writ petition is for a direction to direct the respondents to regularize the services of the writ petitioner in the post of Conductor.

2.Now, the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner as well as the learned counsel appearing for the respondents made a submission that the services of the writ petitioner have already been regularized. However, in respect of other claims, if any exist, it is left open to the writ petitioner to redress the same in the manner known to law.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner states that the writ petitioner is now allowed to continue as on daily wage basis. If at all, the grievances in relation to the conditions of appointment are to be adjudicated, the writ petitioner has to approach the proper and competent Labour Court.
