ORDER

This petition has been filed to quash the FIR in Crime No.335 of 2013 on the file of the first respondent police as against the petitioner.

2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offences as alleged in the impugned FIR. Without any base, the first respondent police registered a case as against the petitioner in Crime No. 335 of 2013 for the offences under Sections 406, 420 and 506(ii) of IPC. Due to political motive and malafide the impugned FIR has been registered. Hence he prayed to quash the same.

3.The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) would submit that it is a case for job racketing. The investigation is still pending and this petition is a premature stage and hence, he prayed for dismissal of this petition.

4. Perused the materials available on record.

5. It is seen from the First Information Report that there are specific allegation as against the petitioner, which has to be investigated. Further the FIR is not an encyclopedia and it need not contain all facts. Further, it cannot be quashed in the threshold. This Court finds that the FIR discloses prima facie commission of cognizable offence and as such this Court cannot interfere with the investigation. The investigating machinery has to step in to investigate, grab and unearth the crime in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Code.

6. In view of the above, this Court is not inclined to quash the FIR. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is also dismissed. However, the first respondent is directed to complete the investigation and file a final report preferably, within a period of Three Months from the date of receipt of copy of this Order, before the jurisdictional Magistrate.
