The learned Counsel appearing for the first respondent submitted that the terminal benefits of the petitioner have been settled. He has also produced before this Court a calculation sheet with details of the amount disbursed to the petitioner. Though the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner states that the amount as per statement has been settled, he expressed that still there is some discrepancy with regard to the quantum. Substantial compliance is not disputed. Hence, the Contempt Petition is closed. If for any reason the petitioner find that he is entitled to more than what was paid to him as per the calculation sheet produced before this Court, it is open to him to work out his remedy in the manner known to law. No costs.
