O R D E R

The petitioner was found guilty of the offence under Section 420 of I.P.C. and sentenced to undergo two years simple imprisonment and levied with fine of Rs.1,000/- by the learned Trial Magistrate in C.C.No.194 of 2007, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Theni. The same was confirmed in C.A.No.45 of 2010, on the file of the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Fast Track Court, Periyakulam. The same is under challenge in this criminal revision case.

2.When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner submitted that he would not challenge the finding of the guilt and that he would be satisfied if some leniency is shown in the matter of sentence. The petitioner is a woman. No doubt, the petitioner did not have good antecedents when this case was taken up for trial. He would state that for the last 10 years the petitioner has not come under any adverse notice. In view of the submission made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the sentence imposed on the petitioner is reduced to the period already undergone. With this modification, this criminal revision case is partly allowed.
