WRIT PETITION No.6011 of 2019

ORDER: (per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice Sri Thottathil B. Radhakrishnan)

This Writ Petition is filed alleging that the petitioner's husband is missing.

2. The learned Government Pleader for Home, on instructions, submits that a particular vehicle was found under mysterious circumstances by the Revenue Officials and the police was informed about the same. The ownership of the vehicle was traced to the husband of the petitioner. Therefore, the police had informed the same to the inmates of the petitioner's home through two constables. The police neither registered any case against the petitioner's husband nor arrested him. It is also submitted that no complaint has been lodged with the police by the petitioner about the alleged missing of her husband.

3. We record the aforesaid submissions and close the Writ Petition without prejudice to the remedies available either for the petitioner or for her husband in appropriate jurisdictions.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall also stand closed. There shall be no order as to costs.
