

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE SANJAY KUMAR

WRIT PETITION No.12259 of 2019

ORDER:

Perusal of the cause title in the writ petition reflects that it was filed in the name of a dead person who is stated to be represented by a General Power of Attorney Holder. The GPA seems to have been executed by one legal representative of the deceased writ petitioner.

A writ petition cannot be filed in the name of a dead person.

On this short ground, the writ petition is dismissed leaving it open to the party aggrieved to file a fresh case in a proper form, if so advised.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall also stand dismissed.

No order as to costs.
