

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE G. SRI DEVI

CRIMINAL PETITION No.4240 of 2019

ORDER :

This Criminal Petition, under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, is filed by the petitioners/A.2 to A.4, for grant of anticipatory bail in Crime No.276 of 2018 of Mills Colony Police Station, Warangal City, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498-A and 306 read with 511 of IPC.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners/A2 to A.4, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent/State and perused the record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they are falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that due to financial disputes between the petitioners and the de facto complainant, the present case is filed against the petitioners with false and frivolous allegations, which is nothing but abuse of process of law. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by the conditions imposed by the Court and prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing the respondent-State opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. As seen from the contents of the FIR, there are specific allegations levelled against the petitioners that they have tortured the deceased mentally and physically and abated her to commit suicide. Due to their torture, the deceased has mentally vexed with her life and committed suicide on 22.07.2018 by pouring kerosene on her body and set ablaze.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioners, gravity of the offences and in view of the facts and circumstances of case, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the Criminal Petition is dismissed. However, if the petitioners/A.2 to A.4 surrender before the Court below concerned within ten (10) days from today and move an application for regular bail, after giving prior notice to the Public Prosecutor concerned, the same may be considered in accordance with law.
