

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE G. SRI DEVI

I.A.Nos.2 and 3 of 2019

in/and

CrI.P.No.6744 of 2019

COMMON ORDER :

The Criminal Petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.2106 of 2018 on the file of the learned VIII Metropolitan Magistrate, Cyberabad at Rajendranagar, registered against the petitioner/accused for the offences under Sections 494 and 498-A IPC.

I.A.No.2 of 2019 is filed under Section 320(6) Cr.P.C. seeking to permit the parties to compound the aforesaid offences against the petitioner/accused.

I.A.No.3 of 2019 is filed under Section 320(2) of Cr.P.C., seeking to record compromise and to quash the aforesaid proceedings against the petitioner. Along with this application, a joint memo supported by an affidavit of the de facto complainant/respondent No.2 is filed and the same are made part of the record. The said joint memo has been duly signed by the parties and their signatures are duly attested/verified by their respective counsel. It is stated in the said affidavit that due to intervention of elders and well-wishers, both the parties settled the matter amicably out of the Court and as such, she does not want to further proceed with the case.

Today, when the matter came up for hearing, respondent No.2/de-facto complainant and the petitioner-accused are personally present before the Court and they are identified by their respective counsel. When this Court enquired the parties, the de-facto complainant and the accused stated that the matter is settled out of court.

In view of the settlement arrived at between the parties, I find that it is a fit case to grant leave to the parties to compound the offences and to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/accused.

In the result, I.A.Nos.2 and 3 of 2019 are ordered. Consequently, the Criminal Petition is allowed and the proceedings in C.C.No.2106 of 2018 on the file of the learned VIII Metropolitan Magistrate, Cyberabad at Rajendranagar, against the petitioner/accused are hereby quashed.

Miscellaneous petitions, if any pending in the criminal petition, shall stand closed.
