KRISHNA MURARI, CHIEF JUSTICE (Oral):

Admittedly, there exists an arbitration clause in the contract entered into between the parties whereunder an independent Arbitrator is to be appointed to settle their disputes and differences. This position is not being disputed by learned counsel for both the parties.

Accordingly, I hereby appoint Hon'ble Sri Justice C.K. Prasad, a former Judge of the Supreme Court of India, to act as sole Arbitrator in the matter to settle the disputes and differences between the parties. The fee, etc. shall be as may be settled by the parties with the learned Arbitrator.

Application accordingly stands disposed of.
