NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

It is not disputed that in pursuance of the review application filed in the order dated 13.01.2017, a specific direction has been issued that the respondents are not bound to pay the benefit minimum pay scale.

In view of the same, no contempt is made out.

The rule issued against the respondent(s) stands discharged.

However, the petitioners are at liberty to revive the contempt petition in case the review application is dismissed.
