NIRMALJIT KAUR,J. (ORAL)

The present contempt petition has been filed for non-compliance of order dated 02.08.2012 but therefore various orders have been passed by this Court.

Admittedly, the order of penalty was passed by Deputy Commissioner to the tune of Rs. 1,18,74,930/- against penalty, royalty and price of mineral imposed upon the contractor.

However, in the appeal filed by the said contractor against the order of High Court, the order was modified and the penalty was reduced to 15 lacs, which has already been challenged by the petitioner by way of writ petition. It is further stated by the respondents that the passage has also been restored.

In view of the above, no useful purpose would be served in continuing with the present contempt petition. The same is dismissed accordingly.

However, in case, the passage is not restored, the petitioner is at liberty to file afresh contempt petition.
