As per FIR, on 27.08.2018, the victim came back from the college and told her father-complainant that the petitioner followed her.

The father of the victim lodged a protect to the father of the petitioner.

On the same day, at about 11:00 p.m., the petitioner forcibly entered the house of the victim and stated that nobody can stop him to meet the daughter of the complainant. Then, the petitioner with an intention to kill the wife of the complainant inflicted a sword blow on her head due to which she fell down on the road. The complainant raised alarm and came forward to rescue his wife but the petitioner inflicted another blow with the sword on his right leg and again tried to inflict blow with the sword on the son of the complainant.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record.
