Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the interest has not been rightly calculated and certain amounts have not been considered while calculating the interest.

As the directions of this Court have been substantially complied with, no further interference is called for in the contempt proceedings.

However, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail remedy for redressal of his grievance with regard to interest awarded. It is further clarified that in case the petitioner approaches the respondent with regard to calculation of interest, the same would be decided in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible.
