It is not disputed that an amount of Rs. 2,10,000/- by way of demand draft has been handed over by learned counsel for the respondents to learned counsel for the petitioners. It is also not disputed that the allotment certificate has also been handed over to the petitioners. The only issue is with regard to the occupation certificate. With respect to the same, learned counsel for the respondents points out that the petitioner is required to file an appropriate application along with the necessary documentation which has not been done and simply filing of an application which has been placed on record as Annexure P-6, is not sufficient. The petitioners shall do the needful within one month from today. Thereafter the respondents shall issue the said occupation certificate within two weeks from the date of receipt of the said appropriate application.
