

COCN No.2264 of 2018 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 17.1.2019

Ashwani Kumar and another

.....Petitioners

Versus

Sakatar Singh Bal

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIRMALJIT KAUR

Present: Mr. Dinesh Mahajan, Advocate, for the petitioners.
Mr. Kanisth Ganeriwala, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab.

NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

Short reply by way of affidavit of Sakatar Singh Bal, Land Acquisition Collector-cum-Sub Divisional Magistrate, Gurdaspur dated 15.1.2019 filed in Court is taken on record. Copy of the same supplied to opposite counsel.

It is evident from the reply that the award has been passed. However, copy of the same has not been supplied to the NHAI as it is not party in the present case.

On oral request of learned counsel for the petitioners, the NHAI is impleaded as respondent No.2.

Amended case title be filed within two days.

On the asking of Court, Mr. Rishi Kaushal, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of NHAI. Copy of the reply has been supplied to him.

Learned counsel for the State is directed to supply copy of the award to counsel for the NHAI within one week from today. Thereafter, the NHAI shall deposit the amount with the competent authority within two months thereafter, which shall be released to the petitioners forthwith.

In view of above, the contempt petition is disposed of.

Rule issued to the respondents stands discharged.

However, in case, the petitioners are aggrieved in any manner,
they are at liberty to revive the present contempt petition, if so advised.

17.1.2019
sharmila

(NIRMALJIT KAUR)
JUDGE

Whether Speaking/Reasoned : Yes/No

Whether Reportable : Yes/No