IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCP No.478 of 2017 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 03.12.2019

Anita Sharma

Petitioner

Versus

Professor Devender Singh, Registrar, Punjabi University, Patiala

Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. Sanjiv Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vishal Khatri, Advocate for the respondent.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (Oral):

The petitioner filed a writ petition claiming promotion as a semi-professional out of the Restorers working in the University. The writ petition was allowed on 03.03.2016. The respondent was directed to re-consider the case of the petitioner for promotion w.e.f. due date and give all consequential benefits therefrom.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though promotion has been given but due date has been wrongly fixed.

Learned counsel for the respondent fairly submits that reasoned order with regard to due date from which the petitioner is entitled to promotion, will be passed within six weeks from today.

In view of above, the contempt petition is disposed of.

Let the petitioner file a representation within two weeks from today. On receipt of representation, respondent shall consider the same, in accordance with law, after providing opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and pass a speaking order within six weeks from the date of receipt of representation.

In case, any consequential benefits arise after the decision of the representation, same be disbursed to the petitioner within six weeks thereafter.

In case any grievance survives after passing of the order, the petitioner shall be at liberty to avail remedies in accordance with law.

Since the main case is disposed of, the pending application has been rendered infructuous.
