NIRMALJIT KAUR, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the parties were heard at length.

After hearing, it is apparent that in pursuance to the order dated 30.05.2013, the Deputy Commissioner enquired into the matter and directed an action to be taken against respondent Nos.6 and 7 (respondent Nos.3 and 4 in the present petition) for misleading the revenue officials. The order passed by the Deputy Commissioner was challenged by the respondents before the Divisional Commissioner. However, the Divisional Commissioner set aside the said order. The order passed by the Divisional Commissioner was never challenged.

Accordingly this Court does not find that there is any wilful contempt. The same is accordingly dismissed.

The rule issued against the respondent(s) stands discharged.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that respondent Nos.6 and 7 (respondent Nos.3 and 4 in the present petition) after getting the land mutated in their favour for a larger areas sold the same by way of carving out plots and the said land belongs to the petitioner in the present contempt petition.

If it is so, the petitioner is at liberty to file an appropriate complaint and avail the remedy as available to him under the law. However, in case the petitioner decides to avail the remedy before Financial Commissioner, this Court has no doubt that the question of limitation shall be sympathetically considered taking into account that the petitioner had availed the present remedy instead of going to Financial Commissioner.
