INDERJIT SINGH, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of CRM-M-1188-2019, filed by petitioner-Nahar Singh, CRM-M-1360-2019, filed by petitioner-Gian Chand and CRM-M-1481-2019, filed by petitioner-Geja Ram, under Section 438 of the Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.110 dated 08.05.2018, registered at Police Station Cheeka, District Kaithal, under Sections 148, 149, 186, 323, 332, 353 and 506 of the IPC (challan presented under Sections 186, 323, 332, 353, 506, 34 and 120-B of the IPC).

Notice of motion was issued in all these petitions. Learned State counsel put in appearance on behalf of the respondent-State and contested all these petitions.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned State counsel and gone through the record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the petitioners earlier filed application for anticipatory bail before learned Additional Sessions Judge, Kaithal, which was disposed of stating therein that there was no apprehension of arrest and no anticipatory bail was maintainable. Now, non-bailable warrants against the petitioners have been issued by the court.

In pursuance of the interim orders dated 18.01.2019 passed in all these petitions by a Coordinate Bench of this Court, the petitioners have already appeared before the trial Court and have been released on interim bail.

CRM-M-1188-2019,
CRM-M-1360-2019 and
CRM-M-1481-2019

Challan has already been presented and the petitioners are not required for any interrogation purposes. The trial of case may take a long time and no useful purpose will be served by sending or keeping them in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case and without discussing the facts of the case in minute details, I find merit in all these petitions and the same are allowed. The orders dated 18.01.2019 passed in all these petitions while granting interim bail to the petitioners are made absolute.
