

CR No.4286 of 2008 (O&M)

Sumitra and ors. Vs. Brahmi Devi

Present: None for the petitioners

Mr.R.P.S.Ahluwalia, Advocate, for the respondent.

* * * * *

On the last date of hearing, it was stated by learned counsel for the petitioners that he is not in contact with the petitioners. As none had appeared on behalf of the respondent as well on that date, notice was ordered to be issued to both the parties.

Notices issued to the petitioners have been received back with the report that they have left the said address. However, learned counsel for the respondent has come present and has stated that petitioners have since vacated the premises-in-dispute and possession has been delivered to the respondent pursuant to compromise arrived at between the parties. He has also placed on record copy of the compromise entered between the parties. Hence, he has stated at the bar that the present petition has become infructuous.

In view of the same, the present petition is ordered to be consigned to the record room with liberty to the petitioners to get it revived, if so desire.
