CM-19502-CII-2019

The matter comes up on an application filed by the petitioner-tenants for disposal of the revision petition in view of the compromise having been arrived at between the parties. The compromise dated 12.9.2019 has been placed on record as Annexure P-2.

On request of learned counsel for the parties, the main case is taken on board today itself.

The application stands disposed of.

CR-2889-2017

Learned counsel for the respondent states that he has no objection in case the revision petition is disposed of in view of the compromise deed dated 12.9.2019 (Annexure P-2).

It is jointly stated by learned counsel for the parties that in compliance of the order dated 19.4.2018 passed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, petitioners had deposited total amount of ₹ 1,26,600/- with the Rent Controller. It has now been decided between them that out of the total amount of ₹ 1,26,600/-, the respondent-landlord will be entitled to receive/withdraw the rent of ₹ 34,800/- and the petitioners will be entitled to received/withdraw the balance amount of ₹ 91,800/-. It is also admitted that possession of the vacant shop has been handed over to the respondent-landlord.

In view of the statements made by learned counsel for the parties as well as the said compromise, the present revision petition is disposed of. The parties shall be bound by the terms and conditions as mentioned in the compromise (Annexure P-2).
