

PARAMJIT SINGH & ANR V/S DARSHAN SINGH & ANR

Present:- Mr. Raman Mohinder Sharma, Advocate for the appellants.

Mr. K.S. Chahal, Advocate for the respondent.

The present Revision Petition is filed by the defendants in the Civil Suit titled “Darshan Singh and another Vs. Jasbir Singh and another” against an interim order dated 01.09.2012 passed by the Lower Appellate Court allowing the application filed by the plaintiffs under Order 39 Rule 1 and 2 CPC restraining them from interfering in the rights of the appellants from lifting the carcasses of their own dead animals as well as of the persons who want to get it lifted from the appellants, provided the appellants would do the needful as per law and at stipulated place so as to maintain hygiene in the village concerned.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that the Civil Suit has already been decided by the lower Court on 23.03.2015, so the present petition has become infructuous.

In view of the said statement, the present revision petition is dismissed as infructuous.

Copy of the order/statement be supplied to the counsel for the parties.

(J.C. Verma)
President

(Arvind Kumar)
Member

26.08.2019
Atul