The present contempt petition has been filed pleading wilful disobedience of the order dated 27.07.2018 passed by this Court in CWP No. 26396 of 2017. The operational part of the order is quoted below:

“ In view of the above, without advertting to the merits of the case, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner(s) in the light of assertion made. If, on consideration, the competent authority reaches to the conclusion that the case of the petitioners is covered by the ratio of law laid down in the above said judgments, in that eventuality, the competent authority is directed to pass the consequential order within a period of six weeks thereafter. However, in case the competent authority feels that the relief claimed by the petitioners is not admissible or made out, in that case, a speaking order be passed in the matter.”

the petitioner that he be governed by the old pension scheme has been accepted. The amount would be transferred to his GPF account within four weeks from today.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the issue of interest has not been decided, the amount was kept by the respondent for a long period.

Learned counsel for the respondent submits that the claim of the petitioner with regard to interest would be decided in accordance with law by passing a speaking order after providing an opportunity of hearing.

Let needful be done within a period of six weeks from today and in case, the petitioner found entitled for interest, payment would be released thereafter immediately.

Needless to say that, in case of grievance with order passed on the claim of interest, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail remedy in accordance with law.
