Chandra Vir Singh

....Petitioner.

Versus

State of Haryana

....Respondent.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SHEKHER DHAWAN

Present: Mr. Maninder Arora, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Neeraj Poswal, Assistant Advocate General, Haryana assisted by HC Tej Pal.

Shekher Dhawan, J.

Present petition under Section 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code has been filed for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case F.I.R. No.332 dated 04.11.2015 under Sections 406, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Adampur, District Hisar.

Learned counsel representing the petitioner contended that the petitioner is in custody since 30.11.2016 and all the material witnesses of the case have already been examined and as the trial of the case still to take some more time, so the petitioner be admitted to bail during the trial.

Learned State counsel, while opposing the prayer for bail to the petitioner, contended that the matter involves an amount of Rs.20,00,000/- and more prosecution witnesses are yet to be examined. However, learned State counsel fairly conceded that material witness i.e. the complainant has

Having considered the submission made by learned counsel for the parties and the fact that the petitioner is in custody since 30.11.2016 and material witnesses have already been examined before learned trial Judge by now, trial of the case still to take some more time and no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner behind the bar any more, the present petition is allowed. Petitioner-Chandra Vir Singh is ordered to be admitted to regular bail on his furnishing adequate bail bond and surety bond to the satisfaction of concerned learned trial Judge/ Chief Judicial Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate.
