AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.221 dated 20.10.2018 under Sections 420/465/468/471 IPC, at Police Station Sarabha Nagar, District Police Commissionerate Ludhiana and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise effected between the parties.

On 29.01.2019 the following order was passed :-

“The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of F.I.R. No.221 dated 20.10.2018 registered under Sections 420, 465, 468 and 471 IPC at Police Station Sarabha Nagar, District Police Commissionerate, Ludhiana and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise effected between the parties.

Notice of motion. On the asking of the Court, Ms. Amarjit Kaur Khurana, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1. Counsel for the petitioner undertakes to supply a copy of the petition to the learned D.A.G. during the course of the day.

Counsel further undertakes to serve respondent No.2 by way of dasti process. May do so. Dasti only.

To come up on 12.03.2019. Meanwhile, the parties are directed to be present before the C.J.M/Illaq Magistrate on 12.02.2019 or on any other date convenient to the Court for recording their statements with regard to compromise. The Court is directed to record the statements of both the parties to its satisfaction to know its genuineness that the statements are not the result of any pressure or coercion in any manner. The Court is further directed to send report along with the statements of the parties with regard to validity or otherwise of the compromise effected between the parties and also intimate whether any criminal case and proclamation proceedings is pending against either of the parties before the next date of hearing.”

Thereafter, the report of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ludhiana dated 30.03.2019 has been received wherein it has been mentioned that :-

“..... the compromise between the parties is result of free volition of the parties and without any undue influence, coercion, inducement, threat or pressure. Further, in view of statement of ASI Kulwant Singh, neither any other criminal case is pending against any of the parties i.e. complainant Agamjot Singh or accused Taranjit Singh Dua, nor any proclamation proceedings are pending against them.”

Learned Senior Deputy Advocate General, Punjab on

The Supreme Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another reported as 2012(4) RCR(Criminal) 543 has discussed in detail the inherent powers of High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint where the parties have entered into compromise except the cases which involve offences such as murder, rape dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society.

In view of the above judicial pronouncement, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

Consequently, this petition is allowed and the above said FIR and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioner.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
