At Chandigarh

CRM-M-4282-2019 (O&M)
Date of Decision:-4.4.2019

Chanchal Singh ... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab ... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Siddharth Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Rashmi Attri, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab.

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J.(Oral)

The petitioner has approached this Court seeking grant of anticipatory bail in respect of a case registered against him vide FIR No.100 dated 20.7.2018 registered at Police Station B-Division, Amritsar under Sections 324, 323, 148 and 149 of Indian Penal Code, wherein offence under Section 326 IPC was added lateron.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has vehemently argued that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case and that infact the name mentioned in the FIR is a different name i.e. Chaichan Turi, whereas the petitioner is named as Chanchal Singh. It has further been submitted that infact the residential address of the said Chaichan Turi is also different from the residential address of the petitioner and that in these circumstances it is apparent that the petitioner has been falsely implicated. It has further been submitted that the falsity of the FIR would be evident from the fact that as many as 14 persons are roped in, in the FIR, half of whom are not even named. It has also been submitted that there is a delay of 3 days in lodging the FIR.

After arguing at length, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all the points raised herein before the trial Court at appropriate stage and to move an application seeking grant of regular bail.

In view of the aforesaid submission, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

In case the petitioner surrenders before the trial Court within a period of two weeks from today and moves an application for grant of regular bail, the learned trial Court shall endeavour to dispose of the same expeditiously preferably within a period of three days from filing of such application but, in any case, not later than one week.
