Notice of motion was issued in this case. Learned State counsel has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent-State and contested these petitions.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned State counsel and gone through the record.

From the record, I find that FIR, in the present case, was got registered by husband-Sandeep Kumar against his wife and her friends regarding committing theft of 70 tollas gold and ₹16 lakh by hatching conspiracy etc.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that parties have already effected the compromise.

Learned State counsel after seeing instructions from the Investigating Officer submits that parties have effected the compromise.

They are not required for custodial interrogation. Therefore, no useful purpose will be served by sending the petitioners to custody.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts of the case in minute details and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I find merit in all these petitions and the same are allowed.
