

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No. 16328 of 1995
Date of Decision : 9.1.2019

Harjinder Singh Gill

.....Petitioner

v.

State of Punjab and another

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE LALIT BATRA

Present : Mr. Rajiv Atma Ram, Senior Advocate with Mr. Arjun Pratap Atma Ram, Advocate and
Mr. Jastej Mittal, Advocate, for the petitioner

Ms. Rukhsaar Dhindsa, AAG, Punjab

Lalit Batra, J. (Oral)

Learned State counsel has pointed out that in compliance of order of the Court, all the financial benefits had already been released to the petitioner including the annual increments, which were ordered to be withheld. Along with this, no recovery has been made from the petitioner. Further submits that as per record available, the petitioner was regularly promoted and he retired on attaining the age of superannuation in the year 2008 as Assistant Food and Supply Officer. Besides that, all the retiral benefits had already been paid to the petitioner as per his entitlement and now he is getting regular pension.

In view of above, learned State counsel states that since entire claim, as raised by the petitioner, has already been provided, instant writ petition has become infructuous.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has given concurrence to the above said facts which have been enshrined in paras No. 6 to 8 of reply furnished at the instance of respondents.

In view of above, instant writ petition is disposed of having become infructuous.
