

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

TA-132-2019 (O&M)
Date of decision: 03.12.2019

Parminder Kaur

...Applicant

Versus

Harpreet Singh

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. S.P. Soi, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. G.S. Waraich, Advocate for the respondent.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

Applicant Parminder Kaur, aged about 29 years, estranged wife of respondent Harpreet Singh, presently residing with her mother at Village Khurampur (Mehatpur), Tehsil Nakodar, District Jalandhar, on account of matrimonial discord between the spouses, by way of filing the present application, seeks transfer of petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, filed by her husband, the respondent against her having title 'Harpreet Singh Vs. Parminder Kaur' pending in the Court of District Judge, Amritsar to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Jalandhar.

According to the applicant, the marriage solemnized between the parties on 13.07.2016 did not work. The couple was not blessed with any child. On account of harassment and maltreatment meted out to the applicant at the hands of respondent and his family members in connection with demand of more dowry, the applicant was forced to leave the matrimonial home and start residing with her mother. The applicant has filed a complaint against the respondent and his family members before SSP, Rural Jalandhar. The respondent has filed the petition in question against the applicant just to harass her. There is no male member in the family of applicant to accompany her to attend the date of hearing in Court at Amritsar. Under the circumstances, it is difficult for her to travel from her parental place to Amritsar, to attend the dates of hearing in the Court there, covering a distance of about 108 kms on one side. Therefore, the present application be accepted.

Notice of the application was given to the respondent who put in appearance through counsel and is opposing the application vehemently, praying for its dismissal.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties besides going through the record.

The Apex Court in various judgments has observed that in matrimonial disputes between the spouses convenience of wife should be looked into. In that regard a reference can be made to authority Sumita Singh Versus Kumar Sanjay and another, 2002 AIR(SC) 396 by a Division Bench of Hon'ble Supreme Court.

In Bhartiben Ravibhai Rav Versus Ravibhai Govindbhai Rav, 2017(3) RCR(Civil) 369, the Apex Court had allowed application for transfer of the divorce petition to a place where the wife was residing considering various factors including the distance between the place where the wife was residing and the place of sitting of the Court where divorce petition had been instituted and the fact that the wife had filed two cases against her husband in the Court at the place of her residence wherein the respondent had already put in appearance.

In Apurva Versus Navtej Singh, 2017(2) Law Herald 966 by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, it was observed that wherever the Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer in matrimonial disputes, the Courts have to take into consideration various factors like economic soundness of either of the parties, the social strata of the spouses to which they belong and behavioural pattern, standard of life antecedents of marriage. Generally it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at by the Courts while deciding the transfer application.

Keeping in view the contentions in the application and submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant, in which I find merit, in absence of any strong circumstance to the contrary, it would be proper and appropriate, if the application is accepted. The same is accordingly allowed. The petition in question is ordered to be withdrawn from the Court of District Judge, Amritsar and transferred to Family Court at Jalandhar for disposal in accordance with law.

The parties through counsel are directed to appear in the transferee Court on 08.01.2020. Copies of orders be sent to both the Courts for information and necessary compliance.
