AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J (ORAL)

The petitioners have approached this Court by filing writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, inter alia, impugning show cause notice dated 15.06.2018 (Annexure P-23) as being time barred having been issued after more than 14 years from the date of last export and realization of export proceeds.

2. A perusal of the writ petition show that the petitioners have not even submitted any reply to the aforesaid show cause notice. After hearing learned counsel for the petitioners, without going into the merits of the controversy at this stage, we dispose of the present writ petition by relegating the petitioners to file a detailed and comprehensive representation raising all the pleas as raised in the present writ petition before respondent No.2 by way of reply to the show cause notice dated 15.06.2018 (Annexure P-23) within a period of one month.

3. It is directed that in the event of a representation being filed by the petitioners within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the certified copy of the order, the same shall be decided by respondent No.2 in accordance with law, by passing a speaking order and after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioners within a period of next one month from the date of receipt of the representation.
