Present petition has been filed for issuance of direction to the respondents No.2 and 3 to take appropriate action against the respondents No.4 and 5.

Although there is written request for adjournment, however, since earlier also the case was also adjourned at the request of proxy counsel only, this Court does not find any ground to adjourn the case any further.

This Court has already held in another petition i.e. CRM-M-20457-2019 decided on 06.05.2019 that unless the statutory proceedings have already been initiated by a statutory authority or Court under Code of Criminal Procedure(for short, 'Cr.P.C'), the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C is not maintainable for issuance of any direction. The remedy is a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed.
