AT CHANDIGARH

IOIN-RSA No.1366 of 2002 in/and
RSA No.1366 of 2002
Date of Decision: 25.03.2019

Balbir Raj and others

..... Appellants

Versus

Parkash

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDIP AHLUWALIA

Present: Mr. Sudershan Moudgil, Advocate for the appellants.

SUDIP AHLUWALIA J. (ORAL)

Seen office report.

Registry has put up this file indicating that no steps have been taken for impleading legal representatives of the deceased respondent by Ld. counsel for the appellants, till date, as a result of which the completion of service in this case is being delayed.

Ld. counsel for the appellants submits that after the death of the respondent, he has repeatedly notified his clients on their available address, seeking instructions regarding the legal representatives of the deceased respondent, but no response has been forthcoming.

In view of the above submission, at this stage, the appeal is treated as having abated against the respondent, however, with liberty for its revival, subject to showing a valid cause for non-appearance.

Since the main appeal stands abated, consequently, IOIN stands disposed off.
