Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation and this fact has been affirmed by learned State counsel.

However, learned counsel for the complainant has opposed grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner on the ground that agreement to sell has been admitted by the petitioner and u-turn has been taken by him subsequently. Admittedly, the challan qua co-accused has been filed. The petitioner was away to abroad and was declared as a proclaimed offender. Said P.O order has already been set aside vide order dated 30.01.2018 passed in CRM-M No.2166 of 2017. Petitioner has joined the investigation and moreover, the civil remedies have been taken by all the parties. The evidence is a matter of trial.

In view of the above, the interim order dated 10.05.2018 passed in favour of the petitioner is made absolute.

The petition is disposed of accordingly.

However, it is directed that in case, the petitioner intends to go abroad, the prior permission be obtained from the trial Court.
