AT CHANDIGARH

CR No.1436 of 2019 (O&M)
Date of decision: 12.07.2019

Piyush Goel

...Petitioner

Versus

Shalini Gupta

...Respondent

Before: Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.S. Walia.

Present: Mr. Ivneet S. Pabla, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Arav Gupta, Advocate for respondent.

B.S. Walia, J. (Oral)

1. Revision petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for setting aside order Annexure P/8 dated 28.01.2019, passed by the learned District Judge-Additional Family Court, Karnal, allowing the application of the respondent-wife under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, granting maintenance @ ₹25,000/- per month.

2. During the pendency of the revision petition, vide order dated 18.03.2019, the matter was referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court as there were chances of amicable settlement amongst the parties.

3. Learned counsel for the parties state that on the basis of proceedings conducted before the Mediator appointed by this Court, amicable settlement has been arrived at between the parties vide settlement dated 27.05.2019, as per which the petitioner has agreed to pay a sum of ₹10 Lakh in full and final settlement of the claim of maintenance to the respondent and minor Parav, out of which ₹25,000/- was paid before the Mediator and ₹1,75,000/- has been paid today to the respondent-wife by way of demand draft dated 04.07.2019 in terms of the settlement. Demand draft has been handed over to the learned counsel for the respondent-wife and a copy thereof duly signed by the learned counsel for the parties is taken on record. Further, as per the settlement/agreement the parties would jointly move a petition U/s 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 seeking a decree of divorce by mutual consent on the terms and conditions agreed upon between the parties before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in the circumstances the revision petition may be disposed of as not calling for any further orders in terms of settlement/agreement dated 27.05.2019, passed in Mediation Case No.657 of 2019.

4. Learned counsel for the respondent-wife who is present along with the respondent in person states that they have no objection if the revision petition is disposed of as prayed for.

5. Agreement/settlement dated 27.05.2019 is taken on record and shall be read as an integral part of this order. In view of the statement of learned counsel for the parties as well as respondent-wife, who is present in the Court, the revision petition is disposed of as not calling for any further orders.
