AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (ORAL)

The present contempt petition has been filed alleging wilful disobedience of the order dated 14.02.2018 passed by this Court in CWP No. 3285 of 2018. Operational part of the order is reproduced below:

“ Accordingly, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.1 to look into the grievances unfolded by the petitioner in the legal notice (P-6) and to take a conscious decision in accordance with law, rules and regulations, circulars (P-3 to P-5) as well as judgments (P-7 and P-8) within a period of four months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. In case any adverse order is to be passed, to pass a speaking order and in that event, petitioner shall be at liberty to have recourse to the other remedies available to him under law.”

Learned counsel for the respondent has produced a copy of order dated 27.06.2018 in Court today. The same is taken on record. Copy of thereof, has been supplied to the counsel for the petitioner.

In view of order dated 27.06.2018, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that no cause of action survives in the present contempt petition. However, he seeks liberty to avail remedy in accordance with law to challenge the order dated 27.06.2018.

Disposed of as infructuous, with liberty as prayed for.

The Rule issued against the respondent stands discharged.
