SARAV DEEP SINGH BRAR

... Petitioner(s)

Versus

U. T., CHANDIGARH

... Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL

Present: Mr. C.S. Bakshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sanjay Vij, Addl. P.P. for U.T., Chandigarh.

Mr. A.S. Brar, Advocate for the complainant.

ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No.370, dated 15.11.2007, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 506 IPC, registered at Police Station Sector 11, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the FIR is outcome of a sudden fight between the students at the University campus, in which simple injuries on the non-vital parts of the body are alleged to have been caused. The petitioner had been declared proclaimed offender as the petitioner could not appear before the Court earlier as the summons were sent to his native village while the petitioner had been residing at Chandigarh ever since the registration of the FIR. He also contends that the matter has now been compromised and the petitioner is in custody for over two months since his arrest on 6.2.2019.

Learned counsel for the complainant puts in appearance and states that the matter has indeed been compromised.

Learned State counsel has filed the custody certificate which indicates that the petitioner has been in custody for almost 2 months.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner, especially when the petitioner was a student at the time of incident, only simple injuries were caused in incident and the matter has been compromised, I deem it appropriate to grant him the concession of regular bail.

Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
