

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

TA-224-2019 (O&M)

Date of decision: 03.09.2019

Monica

...Applicant

Versus

Vinod Kumar

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. R.K. Hooda, Advocate for the applicant.

Ms. Vijay Lakshmi, Advocate for the respondent.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

Applicant Monica, aged about 26 years, estranged wife of respondent Vinod Kumar, presently residing with her parents at Karnal, on account of matrimonial discord between the spouses, by way of filing the present application, seeks transfer of divorce petition, filed by her husband, the respondent against her having title 'Vinod Kumar Vs. Monica' pending in the Court of District Judge, Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Karnal.

As per version of the applicant, she was married with the respondent on 26.02.2014. Thereafter, they started residing together, however, the couple was not blessed with any child. On account of harassment and maltreatment meted out to the applicant in connection with demand of more dowry at the hands of respondent and his family members, she was forced to leave the matrimonial home and start residing with her parents at Karnal, where she is putting up now. She does not have any source of income and is dependent upon her parents for meeting her financial needs. She has filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. besides another petition under provisions of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 against the respondent in Courts at Karnal. She has also filed a complaint under Section 498-A IPC against the respondent at Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri which is now at final stage. The respondent has filed the petition in question against the applicant just to harass her. The applicant being a young woman, having no source of income, it is difficult for her to travel from her parental place to Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri, to attend the dates of hearing in the Court there. Therefore, the present application be accepted.

Notice of the application was given to the respondent who put in appearance through counsel, filed written reply and is opposing the application vehemently, praying for its dismissal.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties besides going through the record.

The Apex Court in various judgments has observed that in matrimonial disputes between the spouses convenience of wife should be looked into. In that regard a reference can be made to authority Sumita Singh Versus Kumar Sanjay and another, 2002 AIR(SC) 396 by a Division Bench of Hon'ble Supreme Court.

In Bhartiben Ravibhai Rav Versus Ravibhai

Govindbhai Ray, 2017(3) RCR(Civil) 369, the Apex Court had allowed application for transfer of the divorce petition to a place where the wife was residing considering various factors including the distance between the place where the wife was residing and the place of sitting of the Court where divorce petition had been instituted and the fact that the wife had filed two cases against her husband in the Court at the place of her residence wherein the respondent had already put in appearance.

In Apurva Versus Navtej Singh, 2017(2) Law Herald 966 by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, it was observed that wherever the Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer in matrimonial disputes, the Courts have to take into consideration various factors like economic soundness of either of the parties, the social strata of the spouses to which they belong and behavioural pattern, standard of life antecedents of marriage. Generally it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at by the Courts while deciding the transfer application.

Keeping in view the contentions in the application and submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant, in which I find merit, in absence of any strong circumstance to the contrary, it would be proper and appropriate, if the application is accepted. The same is accordingly allowed. The petition in question is ordered to be withdrawn from the Court of District Judge, Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri and transferred to Family Court at Karnal for disposal in accordance with law.

The parties through counsel are directed to appear in the transferee Court on 14.10.2019. Copies of orders be sent to both the Courts for information and necessary compliance.
