MAIN

Learned counsel for the petitioner after arguing for some time prays for permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to take all defences before the learned Magistrate.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that in the facts of the case, exemption from personal appearance of the petitioner before the trial Court be granted.

In view of the prayer made by counsel for the petitioner, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

The petitioner is directed to move an appropriate application for exemption from personal appearance before the learned Magistrate, who would consider it sympathetically.
