On 08.03.2019 the following order was passed :-

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Ms.Amarjit Kaur Khurana, DAG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1-State. Mr. Ishaan Singh, Advocate has entered appearance on behalf of respondent No.2.

Learned counsel for the petitioners undertakes to supply two copies of the petition to the learned opposite counsel during the course of the day.

To come up on 26.04.2019.

Meanwhile, the parties are directed to be present before the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate on 29.03.2019 or on any other date convenient to the Court for recording their statements with regard to compromise. The Court is directed to record the statements of both the parties to its satisfaction to know its genuineness that the statements are not the result of any pressure or coercion in any manner. Thereafter, the report of the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Ferozepur dated 01.04.2019 has been received wherein it has been mentioned that :-

“Both the complainants and accused have compromised the matter. There is no grudge remain between parties. The Compromise is voluntarily, without any pressure or coercion. This court is of the considered opinion that the compromise has been affected between the complainants and accused and same is voluntary, without any pressure or coercion and is genuine one.”

Learned State counsel on instructions from Investigating

The Supreme Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another reported as 2012(4) RCR(Criminal) 543 has discussed in detail the inherent powers of High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint where the parties have entered into compromise except the cases which involve offences such as murder, rape dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society.

In view of the above judicial pronouncement, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

Consequently, this petition is allowed and the above said FIR and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioners.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
