HARI PAL VERMA, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of the aforementioned two petitions as both of them have been filed by petitioners under Section 438 Cr.P.C. seeking anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest in common FIR No.74 dated 12.04.2018 under Sections 498-A and 406 IPC registered at Police Station City Gurdaspur, District Gurdaspur.

The petition i.e. CRM-M-20019 of 2018 has been filed by petitioners Amritpal Kaur and Jagjit Singh, who are the parents-in-law of complainant Jaspreet Kaur, whereas another petition i.e. CRM-M-28482 of 2019 has been filed by Jaspreet Singh, who is husband of the complainant.

However, for convenience and clarity, detailed order is being passed in CRM-M-20019 of 2018.

Vide order dated May 07, 2019 passed by this Court, the case was adjourned for today as the petitioners were not present in Court on account of ill health of petitioner No.1 Amritpal Kaur. Accordingly, this Court had directed the concerned investigating officer to ascertain the prescription slip so submitted by petitioner No.2.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners and the complainant have made a joint request that the matter has been settled between the parties. Complainant Jaspreet Kaur is now staying with her husband Jaspreet Singh. Parties are also present in Court in person.

Learned State counsel on instructions from ASI Kuldeep Singh, does not dispute the aforesaid fact and states that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is no more required at this stage.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

Since the matter has been resolved between the parties and they are staying together, the present petitions are allowed and the orders dated 18.05.2018 and 11.07.2018 passed by this Court in CRM-M-20019 of 2018 and CRM-M-28482 of 2018 respectively, are made absolute.

However, if required, the petitioners shall continue to join investigation as and when required to do so and shall abide by the terms and conditions, as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

SHO Police Station City Gurdaspur is directed to depute some lady ASI of the concerned police station to be in touch with the parties for a period of six months.

Photocopy of this order be placed on the file of other connected case.
