

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No. 21243 of 2017
Date of decision : February 06, 2019

Deepak Kumar Mehmi

..... Petitioner

v.

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. AS Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Amarjit Kaur Khurana, DAG Punjab

Mr. BD Sharma, Advocate for the complainant.

Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of regular bail in case FIR No.2, dated 3.1.2017, registered under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of the IPC, at Police Station Navi Baradari, District Jalandhar.

Counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner actually misconstrued the last order and suffered a statement in the Court that he is ready to execute the sale deed and is still ready to execute the same.

Counsel for the complainant points out that the petitioner had sold the land to some persons on a power of attorney and, therefore, the assertion by the petitioner that he is ready to execute the sale deed is absolutely vague and in the air because it is the subsequent vendee who is to re-convey the property. On being put a specific query, counsel for the petitioner has accepted that even he has not been able to state that the subsequent vendee would re-convey the property.

In the circumstances, it is clear that the petitioner has been able to get the interim bail on a wrong ground and continued to remain on bail on the strength of that wrong assertion. Consequently, this petition is dismissed. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the police within three days and in case he fails to do so, the police would make all out efforts to arrest him.

The matter be listed on 27.2.2019 to ascertain if the petitioner has been taken into custody or not.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending C.Ms, if any, also stand disposed of.
