SUNIL AND ANR

... Petitioners

versus

RAKESH KUMAR

.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARI PAL VERMA

Present: Mr. Kulwant Singh Dhanora, Advocate, for the petitioners.

HARI PAL VERMA, J.(Oral)

Petitioners have filed the present revision petition against the judgment dated 05.02.2019 passed by Principal District Judge, Family Court, Hisar, seeking enhancement of maintenance.

It is the case of the petitioners that in a petition filed under Section 125 Cr.P.C. for grant of maintenance, vide judgment dated 05.02.2019, the learned Family Court has allowed maintenance @ Rs.7,000/- per month from the date of filing of the petition. The said maintenance was assessed on the basis of a certificate (Ex.P-1) wherein the respondent-husband was getting salary of about Rs.40,000/-. The petitioner-wife was also earning Rs.8,970/- which was established on the basis of certificate (Ex.R1) and after deductions, her carry home salary was Rs.7,727/-.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has argued that the awarded amount of maintenance is too meagre, more particularly when she has to take care of a minor son, who is about 4 years of age.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

It is admitted case of the petitioners that as per the salary certificate (Ex.R1), she was earning an amount of Rs.8,970/- and after deductions, her carry home salary was Rs.7,727/-. This Court finds that the petitioner-wife has been rightly awarded another amount of Rs.7,000/- towards maintenance. Ex.P1 is a salary certificate of the respondent-husband and in the said salary, certain deductions must have been applied.

Therefore, considering the amount of awarded maintenance as well as the salary drawn by the petitioner-wife, it comes out that she is getting about Rs.15,000/- per month.

No ground for interference is thus made out.

Dismissed.
