...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present: Mr. Sankalp Jain, Advocate for
Mr. Nitin Jain, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Kunal Dawar, Advocate for the respondents.

H.S. MADAAN, J. (Oral)

In a civil suit titled 'Hari Dutt and others Vs. Ved Parkash (now deceased) through his widow and LR, the trial Court of Civil Judge (Jr. Divn.) Faridabad, vide impugned order dated 05.02.2019 closed the evidence of LR of the defendant, observing that she had already availed of numerous opportunities including last opportunity but had failed to conclude her evidence.

LR of such defendant feeling aggrieved has approached this Court, by way of filing the revision petition, notice of which was given to the plaintiffs who have put in appearance through counsel.

Learned counsel for the respondents/plaintiffs in all fairness states that he has no objection if one more opportunity is ordered to be granted to the LR of deceased defendant to conclude her evidence. Under the circumstances, the revision petition is accepted; the order under challenge is set aside and the revisionist is afforded one opportunity to conclude their evidence at own responsibility. The trial Court shall fix a date for that purpose and the revisionist shall bring her entire evidence in the Court on that date. She is burdened with Rs.10,000/- as costs. The trial Court shall get the costs paid to the plaintiff before permitting the revisionist to adduce evidence. Request for further adjournment shall not be entertained in any manner.
