...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present:- Mr. Ashish Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for issuance of direction to respondent Nos. 2 and 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners and also for direction to respondent Nos. 4 and 5 not to interfere in the life of the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that marriage of the son of the petitioners was solemnized with respondent No. 4 on 15.08.2009, however, the marriage could not run well and the petitioner has already filed a divorce petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, which is still pending.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that in the meantime, respondent No. 4 has also moved application before the police authorities and she is also threatening the petitioners.

It is further submitted that petitioners have also given a complaint to the police (Annexure P-1), however, no action is being taken thereon.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioners, I find no ground to issue any such direction as apparently it is a matrimonial dispute arising out of the matrimonial discord between the son of the petitioners and respondent No. 4 and even respondent No. 4 has filed a complaint before police for registration of the FIR which is well within her rights.

In view of the above, this petition is hereby dismissed.

However, liberty is granted to petitioners to move application(s) seeking anticipatory bail in case any FIR is registered against them.
