..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present: Mr. Namit Khurana, Advocate for the petitioner.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No. 119 dated 4.8.2013, registered under Sections 304-A, 279, 337 and 427 IPC at P.S. Bhogpur, District Jalandhar.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Ms. Amarjit Kaur Khurana, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State.

Counsel for the petitioner undertakes to supply a copy of the paper book to the learned DAG during the course of the day.

Counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner had faced the trial and throughout the appeal he has not misused the concession of bail. He further states that only on one occasion he could not appear i.e.

on 21.2.2019 because the petitioner has noted down the next date of hearing as 21.3.2019 instead of 21.2.2019 and the Appellate Court had issued non-bailable warrants against him.

In my opinion, in case above statement is correct, then one lapse can be condoned.

In the circumstances, let the petitioner appear before the Court on 10.4.2019 and if it is correct that he has never misused the concession of bail during the appeal the Court would release him on bail to its satisfaction on that date.

The petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
