MANOJ BAJAJ, J. (Oral)

Complainants have filed this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for challenging the order dated 03.02.2018 (Annexure P-2), whereby the complaint bearing No.3513/2016 filed on 10.05.2016 was dismissed under Section 203 Cr.P.C.

As per the complainant, an industrial plot belonging to complainant No.1 was sold on 30.05.2011 for a total sale consideration of Rs.1,54,76,000/-. The accused No.1 is elder sister of the complainant who demanded financial help as she was in dire need of money. Resultantly, the complainant No.2 signed a blank cheque in her favour. According to the complainant, it was assured that amount would be returned in couple of years time. It was alleged that accused No.1 has failed to return the amount which was given as a loan and she has misappropriated the same for her own benefit.

CRM-M-20215-2019

It is not disputed by learned counsel for the petitioners (complainant) that the property was sold in the year 2011 and the complaint was filed after a gap of five years in the year 2016. The impugned order was passed on 03.02.2018 and the same was not challenged by way of any revision. This petition has been filed after a gap of a year and seven months. Even otherwise on merits, this Court finds that the trial Court has considered the material on record carefully to observe the shortcomings in the case of the complainant. It is specifically observed that the dispute between the sisters is of civil nature.

Resultantly, this Court does not find any valid reason to invoke powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C and the petition is dismissed.
